The summer of 2009 was a summer to remember, which shouldn't be any surprise given the prestige of the internship opportunity and the field of study in which we were immersed. Not only was it a chance to learn cutting-edge scientific techniques, but it was an environment that fostered introspection, which was highly valuable for me in determining my career path. Even if reproductive medicine is not the path that I will ultimately follow, I would not have traded this experience for anything else. The other interns made the long hours manageable and the doctors made it worthwhile. I would recommend this program to anyone interested in medicine, whether reproductive or other, for it is an invaluable experience that you will never forget.

Sincerely,
